

Political Psychology–Augmester

Instructor: Courtney Nava

Course Number: 4221

Description: Examines the psychological foundations of political decision-making among citizens and elites. Considers the role of political psychology in explaining political behavior and outcomes at the individual and collective level.

Recommended prerequisite: PSCI 1101

