

Step-by-Step Guide to the Scholarship Application for Continuing Students

1. Navigate to the Scholarships card in Buff Portal. You can keyword search for it, or look below the Finances card group in the main menu.

2. You can find a link to the CU Boulder Scholarship Application below 'How Scholarships Work' or the 'Find Scholarships' section. The application will open in a new tab.

- Now you're in the scholarship application where you'll be prompted to answer questions for the general application.

The screenshot shows a web application interface for a scholarship application. At the top, there are navigation tabs: 'My Applications', 'Opportunities', and 'Account'. The main content area is titled 'Application Progress' and shows a progress indicator for 'General Application'. Below this, there is a section for 'General Application Questions' with three required fields: 'Preferred First Name', 'Last Name', and 'What is your intended graduation date from CU Boulder?'. A red arrow points to the 'Save and Keep Editing' button at the bottom of the form.

- When completing the essay portion of the general application, you may click 'Save and Keep Editing' and return to it later if you are not ready to submit your essay yet. Updates can be made to the general application until the application deadline.

* The Colorado Creed declares that here, at CU Boulder, we “Act with honor, integrity, and accountability” in our interactions with fellow students, faculty, staff, and the community. As a member of this community which is committed to these values, tell a story from your life when you had to make a choice in which your honor, integrity, or accountability was tested. Who was impacted by this choice and how did it help shape your character?
